

Berndt named Montana Newspaper Association president

Tuesday, 06 July 2010

Libby Berndt

Libby Berndt, publisher of the Sidney Herald, will serve as the president for the Montana Newspaper Association for the 2010-2011 term. She is currently the association's second vice president. She will take over the president's duties after the annual meeting June 17-19 in Bozeman.

Berndt will serve as the annual convention's host when it is held in Lewistown next June.

She has served as the Herald's publisher since 2001. Her career with the Herald started as a typesetter in 1987. She's also held the positions as classified advertising manager, display advertising consultant and office manager/bookkeeper.

Berndt currently serves on the Foundation for Community board, president of the Sidney Lions Club, member of the Sidney Area Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture's leadership taskforce and Town and Country Festival committee, along with many other community projects. She and her husband, Randy, are parents to two grown children and grandparents to two "grand dogs."
